Mary had a little lamb; that time has passed away. No lamb could follow the gait that Mary goes today.

For now she rides on air-shod wheels in skirts too short by half; no lambkin shares her airy flight but you can see her calf. But who is there that can complain or cry in woe "Alas!"

So long as Mary's calf's all right the lamb can go to grass. So all the men delight to gaze; their joy is not a sham, for while the other's out they have no use for lamb.—Stolen.

A Big Hit.

"A Wise Woman," the comedy farce by Wilfred Clarke, has according to the reviews seen of the production, scored the most emphatic kind of a hit. It is serving as a vehicle to display the talent and ability of one of America's daintiest and most fetching comedienne, Marie Lamour, for the past several seasons with Augustus Daly's company, and she is credited with having scored very strongly in the production.
